FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CENTENE, SCHNUCKS AND PEOPLE'S HEALTH CENTERS HOST RIBBON CUTTING CEREMONY FOR FERGUSON CLINIC

ST. LOUIS (Nov. 29, 2017) — Today, Centene Corporation (NYSE: CNC) along with its Missouri subsidiary, Home State Health, and their partners, Schnuck Markets Inc. and Betty Jean Kerr People's Health Centers, hosted a grand opening of a full-service health center located within the Schnucks supermarket in Ferguson, Missouri. Leaders from the organizations participated in a ribbon cutting ceremony. The People's Healthcare Services Clinic by Home State Health will begin serving patients this afternoon.

As previously announced on July 19, 2017, the Centene Charitable Foundation made an initial investment to establish the health center. Schnuck Markets donated the space in its Ferguson store for the primary care for adults and children over the age of three. The Foundation will financially support the health center's operations, while clinical staff from Betty Jean Kerr People's Health Centers will provide medical services. The facility is expected to provide services to over 8,000 people annually.

"We are pleased to celebrate the clinic's grand opening today, and to continue the relationship we have with Schnucks and Betty Jean Kerr People's Health Centers on this project," said Michael F. Neidorff, Chairman and CEO of Centene. "We are all three committed to serving the population of Ferguson and continuing with the revitalization of the area."

"We welcome Betty Jean Kerr People's Health Centers to the new Schnucks Ferguson and thank them and Centene for their commitment to the residents of the North St. Louis County area," said Todd Schnuck, chairman and CEO of Schnuck Markets. "Partnering in this clinic is an example of our commitment to nourish people's lives by focusing on health and wellness programs in the communities we serve."

The clinic will be open Mondays through Fridays 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Saturdays 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Sundays 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The services offered at the clinic include:

- Low acuity primary care for adults and children (ages 3+)
- Immunization services
- Laboratories
- Dental services through mobile unit
- Referral to other needed services, including but not limited to:
 - Primary care
 - X-Ray and screening mammography
 - Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) services
 - Women’s Health (OB-GYN)
 - Social Services

“Clearly, partnerships will be critical in our efforts to help heal and promote the health and wellness of our vulnerable communities,” said Dwayne Butler, CEO of People’s Health Centers. “To this end, we at People’s are very excited to work with Centene and Schnucks to bring valuable primary health care resources to the Ferguson community, together providing and increasing access to quality healthcare in that community.”
